

Assessment Literacy

1. Click the Assessment Literacy button to access assessment literacy training in six-modules different modules, providing a process through which teachers can learn how to create quality assessments. The six modules can be used for self-directed learning or for professional development training.

2. Use the light blue menu on the left side of the page to select the module of your choosing. Then, click the resource you wish to view/download by clicking the document title on the right.

Assessment Literacy

The assessment literacy training in the six-modules below provides a process through which teachers can learn how to create quality assessments. The six modules can be used for self-directed learning or for professional development training.

Each module contains a scripted PowerPoint presentation with supporting materials that include participant activities, templates, handouts, facilitator guides, and research.

- > Module 1: Assessment Design
- > Module 2: Items and Forums
- > Module 3: Scoring
- > Module 4: Performance Standards
- > Module 5: Data Analysis
- > Module 6: Reviews

Module 1: Assessment Design

- M.1 Scripted Power Point Presentation
- M.2 Participant Materials (Activities)
- M.3 Blank Templates
- M.4 Handouts
- M.5 Facilitator Guide
- M.6 References