

In The News

1. To access the Leadership System news feed, scroll to the bottom of the homepage.

In the News

Featured News for July 10th, 2017
Introducing the Leadership System

We have developed an all new resource to enhance your skills as an educational leader! You will learn to discover content based on your needs and preferences, as well as connect with like minded educators.

Hand pick your content or let the system do the work for you! Any way you want to use it, it will be your new go to resource for all of your education information needs!

Trends From Last Month

- Effective Communication
- Setting High Expectations for High Performing Schools
- Evaluations that Help Teachers Learn
- Professional Leadership
- Developing Trust Within Your Faculty
- Accountability in Public Education
- Leading for Continuous Improvement

2. The current featured news relating to the Leadership System will be displayed here.

In the News

Featured News for July 10th, 2017
Introducing the Leadership System

We have developed an all new resource to enhance your skills as an educational leader! You will learn to discover content based on your needs and preferences, as well as connect with like minded educators.

Hand pick your content or let the system do the work for you! Any way you want to use it, it will be your new go to resource for all of your education information needs!

Trends From Last Month

- Effective Communication
- Setting High Expectations for High Performing Schools
- Evaluations that Help Teachers Learn
- Professional Leadership
- Developing Trust Within Your Faculty
- Accountability in Public Education
- Leading for Continuous Improvement

3. The most popular trends from the previous month will be displayed in the right column for quick access. Click on a desired topic to view it. The icon next to each trending topic denotes whether it is a professional development pathway, a Connect With Others discussion topic, or a resource (including the type – e.g., video, article, research brief).

In the News

Featured News for July 10th, 2017
Introducing the Leadership System

We have developed an all new resource to enhance your skills as an educational leader! You will learn to discover content based on your needs and preferences, as well as connect with like minded educators.

Hand pick your content or let the system do the work for you! Any way you want to use it, it will be your new go to resource for all of your education information needs!

Trends From Last Month

- Effective Communication
- Setting High Expectations for High Performing Schools
- Evaluations that Help Teachers Learn
- Professional Leadership
- Developing Trust Within Your Faculty
- Accountability in Public Education
- Leading for Continuous Improvement